Juliet's support throughout my...

Juliet's support throughout my grievance process was invaluable. Her holistic approach ensured that I felt supported every step of the way. She took the time to check in with me both before and after meetings, demonstrating her sincere dedication to my well-being. Her consistent care and attention made a difficult situation more manageable, and I am grateful for her unwavering support from start to finish.

Empathic, good listener, problem solver.

Juliet Fisher has been a great help in supporting me to go forward in my business. Her good level of experience in service, niche and independent businesses first attracted me and after we met, it was then her ability to empathise and listen to my concerns that I appreciated.

Following her advice I have made some changes, both in my approach and way of doing business, and in how and where I network that have all been beneficial.

I would recommend her as an experienced consultant, with an ability to think out-of-the-box.

Tapping into Juliet's impressive consultancy skills was a defining and hugely beneficial decision as we navigated through Seed and Series A/B Funding. She brings honesty, clarity, vision and strong values, along with huge business experience- all of which are indispensable for anyone seeking insights into their business and strategic success.

Throughout this, Juliet has become a staunch supporter and close friend, confidante and consigliere-truly someone I can count on to be straight, assertive and real about situations I consult with her on.

I highly recommend her.

I wholeheartedly endorse Juliet Fisher...

I connected with Juliet Fisher 12 years ago through a mutual friend who recognised our shared passion for the arts and close proximity. From the outset, our chemistry was evident, laying a crucial foundation for our business path. Juliet's infectious enthusiasm and zest for life have been a constant source of inspiration. Juliet's invaluable support and business acumen have played a pivotal role in helping me achieve my entrepreneurial goals. She championed the establishment of my art studio adjacent to her gallery in Suffolk a decade ago, transforming my professional endeavours and enabling me to flourish in art restoration and private tutoring. Collaborating on art-based team-building events and charitable exhibitions further cemented our work partnership with Juliet at the helm. Juliet's unwavering involvement in my work/life journey has significantly contributed to the growth and prosperity of my ventures. I now have my own premises a thriving little art school and fabulous art studio for art conservation, restoration and repair. I wholeheartedly endorse Juliet to empower and uplift your own business pursuits.

I thoroughly enjoyed reading this wonderful book and was struck by what an incredible mind Juliet possesses. Whilst we were all frittering our time away as teenagers and in our early twenties, she was always looking at the bigger picture and questioning. Her tenacity and fighting spirit is quite something and I am in true admiration of all she has achieved and fought for, despite life's many adversities.

An excellent read, would thoroughly recommend!
